Subject: About an event called Japanese Festival

Hi Sara,

I'm Diane, a friend of your mother. I apologize for this sudden message. I got your e-mail address from her. I hope you are enjoying your summer in Santa Barbara. I work at UCYA and teach Japanese. I plan to hold an event called Japanese Festival at the beginning of August. I would like to invite you to the festival to give my students opportunities to practice their Japanese. Could you be a teacher for them? Their Japanese level is *intermediate, so they need a real Japanese teacher like you. The festival will be from 5 pm to 7 pm, and we'll have some Japanese snacks. You can pick a date from August 1, 5, or 9. Let me know which date would be best for your schedule. Looking forward to hearing from you.

Dear Diane,

Thank you for your invitation. I've heard about you from my mom. You lived in Japan and went to a university with her, right? I have an appointment with my counselor on August 1. Also, I will have a final exam of American History on August 9, but I can join Japanese Festival on August 5. I'm not sure what I should teach your students. Please share your suggestions with me. I would like to be well prepared. Thank you.

Subject: My suggestions

Hi Sara,

Thank you for your reply. I'm very glad you can make it! I teach 15 students in my class. Some of them learn Japanese because they like Japanese anime. The others learn to make Japanese friends. So, why don't you share your favorite anime with them? If you tell them why you like the anime and what is interesting about it, they will enjoy your stories in Japanese. Moreover, it will help them increase their vocabulary. If you have any questions, please let me know. See you soon,

Diane
